Base: Those who are registered voters in their city/municipality, 92%

It is still some time from now but there are already some people who are interested in the coming national elections of May 2025, where our people will elect 12 senators and other government officials. We would like to ask you about this topic. There are some people we would like to consult you about regarding their possible participation in the May 2025 elections.

If the May 2025 elections were to be held today, whom of the following personalities would you vote for as SENATOR?

You may choose as many as 12 names.
